1 mark relating to why the fairies have changed

E.g. New inventions have taken over so people are less interested in old tales.

Question Eight (1 Mark)

1 mark for all three correct answers

Men and women used to live in a busy society – false

Time has changed the opinion others have of fairies – true

Boys and girls are less enthusiastic about story telling – true

Question Nine (1 Mark)

1 mark for all events in the correct order

Children became less interested in the world of fairies – 5

Parents would tell their children stories that were passed down – 3

People lived in a world without technology – 1

Technology was invented – 4

Men and women would often walk to their destinations – 2

Question Ten (3 Marks)

1 mark for each of the following points (2 marks). Award 1 mark for an appropriate piece of evidence/explanation which supports one point.

Point – Through the use of repetition.

Evidence – The author repeats 'once on a time' several times throughout the text. This suggests that it is significant to remember this was a time that was once remembered but those memories now no longer exist.

Point – Through the use of comparisons.

Evidence – He compares life 'once on a time' to life now such as 'nor mechanical inventions of any sort to keep people keyed up,' which suggests life without technology was more pleasant and peaceful.
